A sponsored walk in support of the Spike Community Centre Project

“On the Toby”

When the Bluebells are in Flower
Sunday May 14 2006

Stunning views to enjoy along the walk from Dorking Hospital (home of the Dorking Spike) to the Guildford Spike along the North Downs Way. Both buildings once provided night shelter for vagrants until mid 20th Century. Free lifts to Dorking.

Route 1

We follow a 12 mile route between the two shelters raising funds to restore the Spike for a variety of exciting uses and learning lots of interesting facts. We meet at Newlands Corner for a Picnic and join others for the last stage of the walk

Route 2

Newlands Corner to Guildford Spike 2½ Miles 1 - 2 Hrs.

Having enjoyed the delicious picnic both groups join up for this very pleasant walk to the Spike.

Picnic included, minimum to raise:

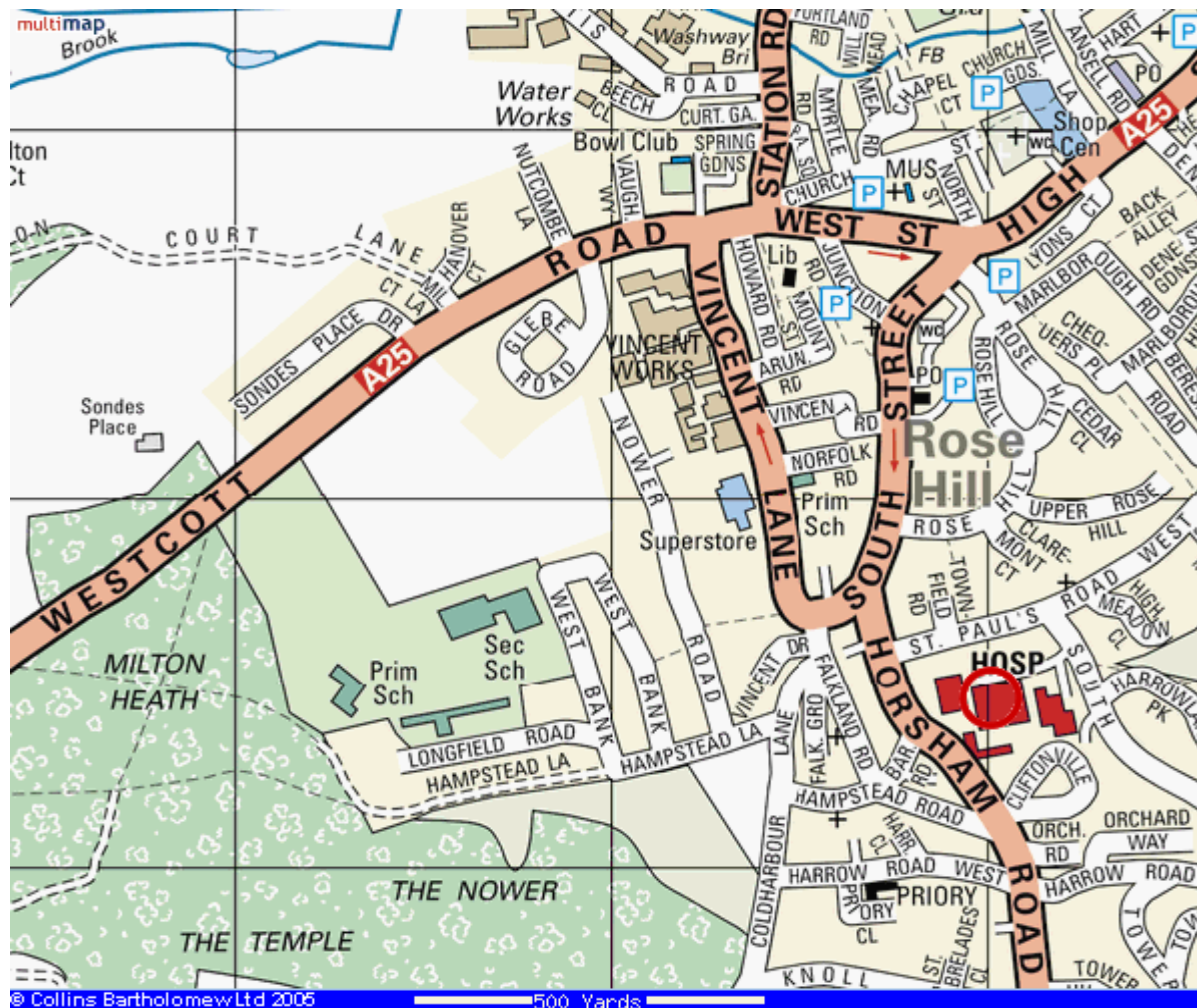

£10 per adult

Or sponsor “CHARLIE ON THE TOBY” and help raise matched funding from Barclays
